

La Bécasse

rue Tabora, 11

<http://www.alabecasse.com/fr/info.html>

Speciality of lambic, gueuze and krielk (cherry beer) served in big carafes. You can also taste a large variety of Belgian and foreign beers.

Falstaff

rue Henri Maus, 19

<http://www.lefalstaff.be/>

Mr Houbbion, carpenter and interior architect who collaborated with Baron Horta, designed the decoration. Colours and shapes, directly inspired by the nature, are concentrated in a pure Art Nouveau style, the so-called organic architecture. The huge picture windows typically represent the quick transition between Art Nouveau and Art Deco.

Delirium café

impasse de la Fidélité, 4a

1000 Bruxelles

Metro De Brouckère

<http://www.deliriumcafe.be/>

You have to choose among hundreds of beers from all over the world !

Poechenellekelder

rue du Chêne, 5

In this puppet cafe, just nearby the "Manneken Pis", visitors travel in the past of Brussels. This place is the official address of various folkloric confraternities. The beer list is exclusively Belgian.

Café des halles

Place Saint-Géry, 1

<http://www.cafedeshalles.be/en/>

Further to the destruction of the oldest church of the city, a covered market has been erected in 1874 in a neo-Renaissance style. It became the economic lung of the city, dedicated to farming products. After years of neglect, tourists as well as Brussels inhabitants are now found of its winter garden, its huge inner fountain, its terrace and its DJ's events !

And so many other typical addresses downtown...

A la Mort subite

rue Montagne aux Herbes Potagères, 7

<http://alamortsubite.com/>

The temple of the well known gueuze !

A l'Image Notre-Dame

Impasse des Cadeaux, 3

Perhaps the smallest wooden pub in Belgium !

Au bon vieux temps

Impasse St Nicolas, 4

A very old pub, dating from the xviith century !

Café de l'Hôtel l'Espérance

rue du Finistère, 1-3

<http://www.hotel-esperance.be/taverne.php>

A pure Art Deco pub, with its typical marble and glass geometric lines.

Le Cercle des voyageurs

rue des Grands Carmes, 16-18

<http://www.lecercledesvoyageurs.com/>

Dedicated to globetrotters !

Cirio
